THE WEATHER.

Winds Off Atlantic Coast.
North of Sandy Hook and Sandy Hook to Hatteras—moderate variable, overcast weather.

Conditions and General Forecast.
The disturbance that was general Saturday night over the St. Lawrence valley has passed eastward, beyond the range of observation, but a belt of low pressure and opposing winds, over the Atlantic states, has been attended by local thunder storms throughout the eastern states.

There has been a considerable fall in temperature since Saturday in the middle Atlantic states.

The outlook is for fair weather Monday and Tuesday in the middle Atlantic states.

The tendency will be toward higher temperatures Tuesday in the middle Atlantic and New England states. There are no indications, however, of a return to abnormally high temperatures in any section east of the Mississippi river during the next three days.

Forecast.
Southern New England: Partly cloudy Monday; Tuesday fair with rising temperatures.

Observations in Norwich.
The following records, reported from The Bulletin's observations, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Saturday and Sunday.

ONE DEAD, FOUR INJURED TRAIN HITS AUTO PARTY

(Special to The Bulletin)

Sterling, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Henry Fillgar of Occum is dead and four other persons are injured, one of them probably fatally as the result of an automobile accident here about 9 o'clock this morning when a new Chevrolet touring car, owned and driven by Henry Fillgar, husband of the dead woman, was struck by a passenger train at the grade crossing on the state road. Mrs. Fillgar died at the Day-Kimball hospital at Putnam late Sunday night.

The injured: Henry Fillgar, Occum, broken ribs, cuts and bruises.

Martin Wohleben, Norwich avenue, Taftville, fractured skull.

Mrs. Martin Wohleben, Norwich avenue, Taftville, injury to back.

Walter Wohleben, Norwich avenue, Taftville, shock, cuts and bruises.

Mr. Fillgar, Mrs. Fillgar and Mr. Wohleben were removed to the Day-Kimball hospital at Putnam in automobiles.

Mrs. Wohleben and her son Walter, a boy of 6 or 7 years of age, were placed upon the train that struck the automobile and were taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Willimantic.

At the hospital late this afternoon it was stated that Mrs. Fillgar's condition was so serious that no attempt to operate upon her had been made and the chances for her recovery were considered very slight.

The party that figured in the accident was en route from Taftville to Rocky Point, R. I., to spend Sunday. The crossing where the accident occurred is a bad one and is protected only by an electric signal, which was working at the time of the accident. It was declared by other people in the vicinity, but Mr. Fillgar, who was driving, evidently did not hear it.

The locomotive swept out of a cut, on a curve, just west of the crossing, and struck the car full on the side, throwing it into the ditch beside the track. Dr. Francis Downing was summoned from Groton and arrived at the scene first, aid, afterwards arranging that they be sent to the hospital.

The car, a Chevrolet, whose speedometer showed just 1,312 miles, is a complete wreck.

Mr. Wohleben was also regarded as being in a very serious condition. He was operated upon by Dr. F. B. Overlook. Mr. Fillgar has several broken ribs, but he is not dangerously hurt and his recovery is expected.

At St. Joseph's hospital at Willimantic it was stated that Mrs. Wohleben is not seriously hurt and that she felt so well Sunday afternoon that she asked to be permitted to return to her home, but the hospital authorities thought best that she remain there. Her son, Walter, is suffering only from shock. He is not seriously injured.

WANT RULES ABOUT PRIZES

AT FAIRS MADE LIGHTER

With the intention of asking the state board of agriculture to modify its ruling on prizes at fairs, whereby, in an effort to banish gambling at state fairs, all games of chance—those involving trinkets or merchandise of small value as prizes—were prohibited, the executive committee of the State Fair association has appointed a sub-committee to confer with the state board of agriculture.

This committee is composed of Joseph W. Alston of Avon, H. J. Bailey of East Haddam and Marshall Porter of Clintonbury.

Surprisedly gambling, often for high stakes, was epidemic at many state fairs last fall to such an extent as to force the state board of agriculture to decree that section 2123 of the general statutes must be enforced to the letter. The ruling affects all fairs controlled by the board and has occasioned statewide comment. Several fair officials feared it would have an adverse effect on attendance and the sub-committee will argue that, inasmuch as the coming fair season immediately precedes a session of the general assembly, the fair is allowed to proceed under the same ruling.

These rules, laid down by the state board of agriculture, prohibit all games of chance except those involving prizes, other than cash, of small value and therefore of an innocent nature.

Regarding the recent ruling of the state board of agriculture, Leonard H. Healey, secretary, said it was up to the individual fair association to do as they saw fit as to allowing innocent games of chance involving prizes, but no association which did allow them could benefit by the state appropriation for agricultural fairs.

The state allows each fair association $100 for the first $100 it furnishes, and $50 for each succeeding $100, with a limit of $500 for each association. There are 62 fair associations in Connecticut, some of which draw $100 from the state and others of which draw $500.

MISS GALLAUDET BLAMELESS

IN RECENT ACCIDENT

Westerly, Aug. 1.—Miss Suzanne GallauDET, of Stonington, formerly of Norwich, will answer in the third district court at Westerly, next Friday, to the charge of operating an automobile without a license but not to an additional charge of driving an automobile recklessly when she was involved in the accident on the right of the road driving from Watch Hill in the direction of Westerly and that Miss GallauDET deliberately drove her car across the road and against the Porteus car.

It has since developed, according to report, that the Porteus car was on the left of the road instead of the right, and that Miss GallauDET veered her car to the left of the road to avoid a head-on collision. Just as Miss GallauDET made this move, the operator of the Porteus car did likewise, and the collision was inevitable, but not with Miss GallauDET at fault.

Had the Porteus car been where it should have been under traffic regulations there would have been no collision, is the claim of Miss GallauDET.

FARMERS SAY NO MONEY

IN MILK BUSINESS

While the average person who pays 15 cents for a quart of milk may think the price is pretty high, in comparison with the days when 6 cents was considered a fair return for the same amount of liquid food, many of the New London county farmers who are now engaged in the milk business are either reducing the number of their cows or getting ready to sell out altogether.

There are three milk farms in North Waterford that will dispose of cows and stop selling milk in the near future. Several others will only keep a few cows and give up a part of their customers.

The farmers say there is no money in selling milk at present prices, and quite a number of them, rather than to charge more, will retire until such time as the expense of production is reduced.

It is hard work to get men to work on the farms, the cost of grain keeps soaring, milk bottles are expensive, and when the loss from bad bills is figured in there is little incentive to work for the benefit of the public.

The farmers say there is more money in selling hay standing and in renting their pastures than in handling milk.

WILL SEAL L. O. O. F.

BOOK FOR CENTURY

State Librarian George S. Golder has placed on exhibition in the State Library a book which is to be sealed in a copper box and is not to be opened until 2019.

The book contains an account of the celebration in Hartford last year of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Odd Fellowship in America. Illustrated with over 200 photographs of the event and of men and women prominent in the order.

It is expected that when the Odd Fellows celebrate their two hundredth anniversary much interest will center in the book.

The copper box in which the volume will be sealed is suitably engraved, and it is expected the contents will be in good shape when it is opened.

Leg Broken and Reset.

One of the men so badly injured in the crossing wreck at Saybrook May 21st, James W. Rogers, a patient in Norwich at Backus hospital, had the cast taken off his leg recently. The physicians found the leg shorter than the other, so had to break and reset it.

MERRY-GO-ROUND OWNER

ACQUITTED BY COURT

Charles H. Cowan, operator of the merry-go-round at Ocean Beach, who was arrested by order of Prosecuting Attorney Daniel M. Cronin following request for such action by Mayor Morgan, was acquitted in the police court at New London Saturday by Judge William R. Colt.

The letter sent by Mayor Morgan was the result of written and personal complaints lodged with him by Charles H. Klinek and about 30 others, who claimed that the merry-go-round was a nuisance.

Cowan was arrested because he operated it on Sunday, which the New London authorities claimed was a violation of the Sunday laws. Cowan operated on Sunday on the advice of his counsel, Hull, McGuire and Hull. The contention of the city was that the merry-go-round was a nuisance and that it was a violation of the Sunday laws.

Although it is known the mill, when completed, will employ many hands, officers of the new company have declined to furnish details of the project until such time as the company secures an abatement of taxes such as was allowed the New London Ship & Engine Co., but which for reasons town officials are unwilling to disclose, they have been holding off in bringing the matter before the attention of the voters.

BECKLESS AUTO DRIVER

IS GIVE $100 FINE

Arthur G. Burr of New London, who, while operating an automobile on low-er Bank street in New London last Saturday night struck and injured Raymond Brennan of Prospect street, Norwich, and John Day, son of Mrs. Michael Day, of 268 Franklin street, Norwich, was arraigned before Judge William R. Colt in police court in New London Saturday morning charged with reckless driving. Through his attorney, G. Curtis Morgan he demurred to the complaint. The demurrer was overruled and the accused found guilty and fined $100 and costs. Attorney Morgan intimated to the court that he might appeal the decision, and bonds of $200 were ordered in the event of such appeal.

At the time that Burr hit the two young men, who were walking along the side of the road, he is alleged to have been very much intoxicated. He did not know that he had struck anyone and did not stop at the time he struck Day and Brennan, but continued and was arrested by Patrolman Clarence Wells, who found him with his car stalled on Willets avenue.

Day and Brennan were taken to Lawrence and Memorial Associated hospital, where it was found that the latter had incurred only slight injuries and after a short treatment he was removed to his home in Norwich. Young Day, however, received injuries about the head and body that confined him to the hospital until Friday, when he was taken to his home.

TOWN OF GROTON

TO IMPROVE HIGHWAYS

Additional appropriations totaling $10,500 were voted at a special meeting of the town of Groton at the town house at Poquonnock Friday evening. The appropriations voted are $7,500 for town highways, $1,500 for borough streets and $1,500 for cure of poor and insane. A petition asking that the selectmen be authorized to lay out a public street for Branderage avenue was laid upon the table until the borough takes action.

The selectmen were empowered to take such necessary action to protect the interests of the town of Groton in the present difficulties with the New London ferry commission.
